Term 4 Week 10

Dear Parents, Families and Friends,

Well, here we are in Week 10 – where has the year gone? This will be the final newsletter for 2023 and the last newsletter from me. Thank you for a wonderful year at Nangus Public School. The staff, students and parent community have been fantastic to work with. I will be working closer to home next year in Cootamundra. Miss Anna Streckfuss will be at the helm in 2024 and I know she will do an amazing job!

PRESENTATION DAY

We look forward to seeing you this Wednesday 13th December at our Presentation Day starting at 1.30pm. We are holding the celebration in the Major Mitchell room. After the presentation we invite you to have a cool drink and fruit snack under the COLA. All are welcome!

MOVIE DAY

This Thursday we will be having a movie day with popcorn and ice cream / ice blocks. This will be provided for the students.

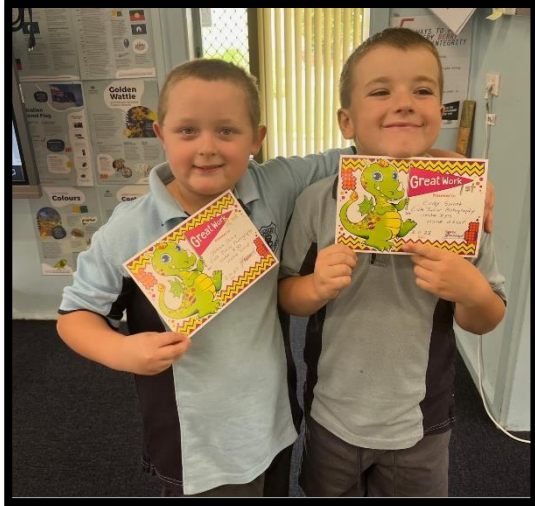

WOOL SPINNING

Last Wednesday, we had Pat and Jan visit Nangus Public School. They demonstrated wool spinning and then students had a turn at spinning too. What a wonderful experience for students! Thanks to Miss Streckfuss for organising.

CWA Junior Photography Competition

Students recently entered into a Junior Photography competition run by the CWA. The topic was 'Around the yard'. The following students received awards for their work which has now gone onto the CWA State Conference in Coffs Harbour. We will find out the final results in May 2024.

GOODLUCK ANGELA

Our year 6 student leader Angela Eyres will be finishing at Nangus Public School this Friday. We would like to take this opportunity to thank Angela for all her help with various jobs at Assemblies this year and wish her all the best for high school in 2024. Thank you Angela and good luck.

FAREWELL

I wish everyone a very merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year and holiday break. May you stay safe and enjoy a peaceful and productive time together. We look forward to welcoming staff back on Tuesday 30th and Wednesday 31st January for Staff Development days and all students back to school on Thursday 1st February. Staff will be at school next Monday and Tuesday for Professional Learning and planning for 2024.

Have a wonderful holiday!
